

(1) For the attention of all parents:

Students who participate in sports events at the inter-school level and have to miss school for the same, may be exempted from a written-task held on the day of the event. These students need to get a letter of approval signed by the Principal as well as a letter from the respective sports authority stating their participation in the event, and submit them to their class-teachers if they wish to be exempted.